

Do You Deserve a Break? How About a Luxury Vacation in the Caribbean?

Do you deserve a break from the hectic city life and tight schedules? How about a luxury vacation in the alluring Dominican Republic? 1000 miles of pristine beaches lined with sprawling luxury resorts, ultra modern spas, casinos, designer golf links and the Islanders'™ heartwarming hospitality redefine luxury.

The splendor of the Caribbean Sea is best soaked in by spending a night floating mid sea on a chartered yacht or boat with nothing but the calm sea, sky and stars to keep company. Chartered services sail out of Florida or British Virgin Islands and using the services of American Yacht Charter Association (AYCA) is a safe bet. Island hopping in a chartered helicopter or plane is another exotic option. Several airports in the Republic including Dr. Joaquin Balaguer airport in La Isabela and Herrera International in San Domingo offer chartered services. The Island's™ spa experience soothes nerves, pampers senses and renews visitors. Ultra modern, oceanfront spas attached to resorts offer signature treatments blended with ancient wellness secrets of the Caribbean. Capital Santo Domingo is one of the oldest and most vibrant Caribbean shopping cities abounding in opaque blue Larimar, translucent Amber, native crafts, cigars and carnival masks and other exotic souvenirs. The several monuments in San Domingo commemorate Columbus's™ epoch making journey.

Punta Cana, the Republic's™ best beach has 20 miles of white sands and swaying palms which earned it the name "coconut coast"™. Surfers will love Bani and Las Salinas beaches and those who love crowds can be at Boca Chica and Juan Dolio beaches. At Ocean World in Cofresi, visitors can swim with sharks or play with dolphins in the lagoon.

Visitors can experience tantalizing regional and international gourmet dining in the several hundred cozy restaurants. The Republic has world's™ hottest glitzy nightclubs swinging to the vivacious beats of merengue and bachata. The rapid and fluid hip swings of Merengue and the romantic Bachata are best watched during the week long festivals ?Santo Domingo and Puerto Plata Merengue Festivals and the Dominican Republic Jazz Festival.

About the Author

Alex Briganza is a professional traveler who uses his travel experience to introduce people to the joys of traveling. Alex is especially adept at luxury travel, and his favorite destination include Caribbean. for more information visit: <http://www.voyage.tv/Pages/home.aspx>

Source: <http://www.womansinfo.com>